

Part A: 5%
Please circle the best response

1. Which of the following is a symbol of Canada?

2. What is the message in this quote?

When I think about Canada, I think about vast spaces and tight communities and that, I think, was represented in what we heard today and the people that were represented here. They come from all over the country and all different communities, but they're tightly connected."

— Michael J. Fox

- a. Canada has a high level of racism.
- b. Canada has a very low rate of unemployment.
- c. Canada is very accepting of people from all nations and ethnic backgrounds.
- d. Canada's different ethnic groups remain staunchly divided.

3. Which Canadian act was passed in 1958, ensuring Canadian musicians receive a certain amount of airtime on Canadian radio stations?

- a. British North American Act
- b. Broadcasting Act
- c. Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedom
- d. Treaty of Utrecht

4. What is a goal of the CRTC?

- a. assist new immigrants to Canada
- b. encourage Canadians to buy Canadian -made products
- c. examine the Canadian economy for recessions
- d. protect and promote Canadian culture

5. What message is seen in this painting?

- a. Historically, Canadians did not strongly practice their religious faith.
- b. Historically, Canadians found practising their religion to be a high priority in life.
- c. Historically, Canadians were kept from attending church due to the rough landscape and terrain.
- d. Historically, Canadian ethnic diversity created many separate churches within each community.

Part B. 25%

Interpret the following Canadian painting by answering the following questions.

No. 3 Canadian Stationary Hospital at Doullens
Painted by Gerald Edward Moira
Beaverbrook Collection of War Art

1. What do you see in the image? Describe the details in each part of the photo. (2%)
2. Who is in the painting? What are the people doing? What is happening? (3%)
3. How are the people dressed? What can you learn about their lives from their clothing? (2%)
4. Notice their facial expressions. What feelings are they expressing (1%)
5. How do the people seem to be relating to or interacting with each other? (2%)
6. Describe the building. Is it old or new? What is its purpose? (3%)
7. Where do you think this painting was painted? When? How can you tell? (2%)
8. What level of technology is being used? What does this tell you about life at this time? (2%)
9. What emotions might the artist have been trying to create? (1%)
10. Why do you think this picture was painted? (2%)
11. Has the artist emphasized anything in order to strengthen his message? (2%)
12. What does this painting tell us about Canada? (3%)

Part C. 10%

Answer the following personal response question in the format of an essay.

1. By using your own knowledge, and the sources below, prove that Canada is a country of many advantages for its people.

Source 1

I am a Canadian, free to speak without fear, free to worship in my own way, free to stand for what I think right, free to oppose what I believe wrong, or free to choose those who shall govern my country.

John Diefenbaker (From the Canadian Bill of Rights, July 1, 1960.)

Source 2

Snapshot of Canada (May 16, 2006)
Population (Note)	31,612,897
Median age	39.5
Total visible minority population	5,068,090
Total private dwellings	13,576,855
Median earnings in 2005 (full-year, full-time earners)	$41,401