

ACADIA

One of Canada's best.

1. Consistently one of Canada's top 3 undergraduate universities (Maclean's University rankings 2010).
 2. Average class size is 28; student to faculty ratio of 15:1.
 3. Customized education with 200 flexible degree options.
 4. Over 3 million scholarships awarded annually.
5. Globally recognized degree; 27000 alumni from 60 countries worldwide.

Admission Guidelines:

General Admission applies to all programs: English 3201, four additional grade 12 academic courses and, a minimum overall average of 70%

Specific program admission requirements are available in the GO or on the Acadia website.

Early Fall Admission: students who have a grade 11 average of at least 75% may be considered for early fall admission. For details please see the GO or check out the Acadia website.

$$$$$ (per year):

Tuition (Undergraduate) =	$6591
Technology Fee =	$568
Athletic and Health Services Fee =	$247
Subtotal =	$7,406
Room and Board (other options are available)
Shared double room, 7 day meal plan =	$8,332
Medical and dental (optional) =	$337
Other fees =	$228
Total Estimated Costs =	$16, 303

Scholarships:

An admission application and all required supporting documents for admission must be received in the Admission Office before March 1 in order to be considered for an entrance scholarship.

What's Acadia really like? See for yourself through the lens of Maclean's photographer Andrew Tolson, who captured a day in the life of Acadia campus last fall. Or hear it from real Acadia people on AcadiaTV. Find it all at www.acadiau.ca